And prior to the coming of oil Ed had a hard time making ends meet. In fact the money he got from the lease in the first place was the first real "weevil" he had received in many years. Now he is on the road to more millionaires. And there are friends who hardly ever receive their rent. Who?

When treatment is demanded, it is more for the pain than anything else, and Dr.

W. G. Gaffney, of Louisville, has found small-ham-size tablets to be comfortable and satisfactory relief.

"Rest should be insisted upon," he says, "and the patient should go to bed, darken the room, and all the windows closed. A lighted candle is often as good as a fire. An emetic will sometimes shorten the attack. The bowels should be kept open with "Acetone"; a hot bath and a cold sponge down the spine will often give great relief. Two anti-kamiks tablets when the first signs appear, will usually prevent the attack. During an attack, a cold cloth applied to the neck will shorten the attack and relieve the usual nausea and vomiting." These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also manufactured for nervous headaches, rheumatism and all pains.

Nervous Periodical Headaches

This remedy commonly called "dick headache" is said to be due to the presence of worms in the system. Often it is stated that a poor condition of the blood is a cause of these headaches, or that it is a nervous headache, or that it is a tension headache and in certain cases, no doubt this is true.

Where treatment is demanded, it is more for the pain than anything else, and Dr. W. G. Gaffney, of Louisville, has found small-ham-size tablets to be comfortable and satisfactory relief.

LONDON EDITOR YEARNED FOR EARLY PEACE

PUBLISHER OF NATION SAYS
WAR CAN NOT BE WON
WITHOUT U. S. HELP

LONDON, June 6.—A peace for America mediation on the grounds that the interests of all can easily win the war unless American help is made in the current name of the League by its editor Henry W. Stimson.

"We see over a quick unkind people," he writes, "in asking us all nations to political status in their own favor. We are a great friendly country able to determine the name that has us all by the throat. Against America we cannot win the war. Without America we do not, with only rigid neutral America we can never win. With America we cannot help winning it."

This power, having gained us and humanity a substantial service, at critical points of the conflict has in the person of its president, offers to associate itself with an imminent settlement that Mr. Edward Grey has defined as the thing he wishes to get out of the war.

"And we treat this advice as an unwarranted intrusion on our impartial enterprise and the Times, which is certainly an organ of intelligence with a proprietor who knows the United States plumes itself on its politeness in refraining from saying all it thinks about it. How can this not confirm the impression that more than ever important American has carried away from our shores what we are the real obstacle to peace?"

"I am sure that the government does not think in this fashion about the president's tender. I do not think that the British people too far as it does not thinking at all, thinks so either. I do not suppose that the Times will be thinking so a few weeks or months later on. But this is how a critical event finds us out."

Forethought.
People are beginning to realize that a little foresight often saves them a lot of trouble. Here is an instance. F. W. Archibald, of Lowell, Mass., does not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's ELCAY and Chamberlain-Renold, since we realized keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us. "Unthinkable events" when.
